A NOSE FOR GOOD TIMES

LAURA ODA/STAFF

NICHOLAS HANDLEY, 7, of Walnut Creek tries on a clown nose with the help of Tonia Farinha, a marketing director with Spirit Halloween Superstores. The company was sponsoring a Halloween party at Children's Hospital Oakland on Tuesday. Patients were treated to games, books, free costumes and crafts during the party. Nicholas was in the hospital after being hit by a hit-and-run driver at the Oakland International Airport on Saturday.
